Matthew 18:28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow servants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

Mark 14:05 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

Luke 07:41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

A close-up photograph of a white flower with a yellow center, covered in water droplets, set against a background of green leaves. The flower is the central focus, with its petals and stamens clearly visible. The water droplets are scattered across the petals, adding a fresh and vibrant feel to the image. The background consists of various shades of green leaves, some in sharp focus and others blurred, creating a sense of depth.

A close-up photograph of a hand holding a white rose. The hand is positioned at the bottom of the frame, with fingers gently cradling the base of the flower. The rose is in full bloom, with many layers of white petals and a yellow center. Green leaves are visible around the rose, some in the foreground and some in the background. The background is dark and out of focus.

Luke 10:35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again,
I will repay thee.

John 12:05 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?
