

A photograph of a winter forest. The ground is covered in a thick layer of snow. Numerous evergreen trees, likely spruce or fir, are scattered throughout the scene. Their branches are heavily laden with snow, and some have snow hanging from them. The trees are dark green, contrasting with the white snow. The sky is bright and overcast, suggesting a snowy day. The overall atmosphere is quiet and serene.

Heb 09:22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.
